

Census

Every stat tells a story.

Newsletter article (reminder) – August 2021

It's not too late to complete your Census

Census night was Tuesday 10 August, but there's still time to complete. Every person in Australia needs to be included, so that Census data is as accurate as possible. Data from the 2021 Census will be more important than ever, providing valuable insights into how the pandemic has changed life in our community and throughout Australia, and will help plan our recovery.

We encourage you to jump online and complete your Census today. If you haven't received your Census instructions or have misplaced your letter you can still complete now - go to www.census.abs.gov.au, select 'Start the Census' and choose the 'Get a Census Number' option. You can also request a paper form by calling 1800 512 441.

All personal information collected is kept safe and is not shared with anyone. You and your family can't be identified by the information you put on your Census.

Help is available to complete the Census

If you need help to complete your Census there is a range of supports available including:

- online videos and tutorials
- Census information translated in over 30 languages
- information on social media
- an easy read guide about the Census.

Assistance is also available through the Census Call Centre on 1800 512 441 or through the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS National) on 131 450.

Complete your Census today. Your answers help build a better future for you and our community.